A NEW BUS FOR LONDON

Competition rules - A new bus for London

Imagine category

1. Entries in the Imagine category may be for a whole-bus concept or concepts or ideas for individual features or parts of the bus

2. Whole-bus concepts must include the following elements of the basic design concept for the new bus for London:

   (a) A red double-decker bus

   (b) An open access platform entrance/exit located at the rear nearside corner of the bus

   (c) At least one other entrance/exit with doors

   Concepts or ideas for individual features or parts of the bus are also expected to be consistent with the above elements of the basic design concept

3. All entries in the Imagine category must include at least one sketch or drawing which gives a visual impression of the concept for the new bus (or feature of the bus). For whole-bus concepts, this could be an 'artist's impression' type drawing of the front and side views. In addition, entries must include a brief written explanation of the thinking behind the design or concept, describing, for example, why you think it is important, how it would work and what it would look like

4. All entries must be submitted with a completed official entry form which can be found at tfl.gov.uk/anewbusentryform

5. Entrants must state on the entry form that they are submitting their entry in the Imagine category. Submissions cannot be entered in both the Imagine category and the Design category

6. Entries must be in English
